Spring Review of the German Regi-Spring Review of the German Regiment—The Appearance of the Men. The Spring parade of the Fifth regiment N. G. S. N. Y. was witnessed by the Mayor and Common Council yeaterday. The regiment, under the command of Colonel Charles S. Spencer, marched from their armory to the Bowery, down the Bowery, through Chatham street to the east entrance of the City Hall Park, across the Park, where they were reviewed by the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen. The appearance of the men with their gift helmets was very inc. but the marching was far below the standard. The park was crowded, and the police had much difficulty in teeping the crowd back. At ten minutes to three o'clock the end of the celturn passed out of the west entrance, and proceeded up Broadway to Fourteenth street, and diseace back to the armory, where the regiment was dismissed.
